BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Reports the death of Pallegar Pensioner Narrainsamy and recommends that the pension of Rs 63-8-10 enjoyed by him may be continued in the name of his son Ramaswami.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

On the death of Ramaswamiah, the pension of Rs 63-8-10 drawn by him was continued in the name of his son - Narayanaswami in G.O. No. P.P. 107-8 of 25-5-1900.

2. The State Huzur Treasury Officer to whom

that the pensioner Narrainswamy died on the 29th of October 1908 and left behind him an only son by name Ananthe Ramaswami, who is the sole heir & legal representative to the family pension & recommends its continuance in his name.

3. One Lakshmammani, widow of Suryanarayanswami, claims to a share in the pension on the ground that her husband Suryanarayanswami & late Ramaswami - father of the deceased Narrainswami, were uterine brothers & she has to support a son & a daughter left by him. (vide Genealogical Tables).

4. The State Myore Treasury Officer states that the other brothers of late Rameswarai.e Soorynarayanswamy & Ranganna were given away in adoption to another line in the family & on this account they were not given a share in the family pension on the death of their father Krishnaswami, but the pension was continued in full in the name of their elder brother - Ramaswami

5. Again on the death of abc
the pension was continued his son Narrainsami & petitioner – Lakshmammani had not put forward her claim for a share in the pension.

6. The Contention of Stk Hnzr Dreasy officer regarding the adoption of Suryanarayanswamy – the husband of Lakshmammani, to another branch of the family is not correct. No doubt Suryanarainsamy was adopted to the family of Anantaramaswami, but the adoption was not recognized by Chief Commr in 1843 & that of his other brother Ramlakhia to Narrainsami's family was recognised Hence, Suryanarainsami was deprived both the pensions, i.e., both of his then's & that of his adopted father's In 1893, Suryanarainsamy had claimed the Dewan praying either the grant of a share off his father's son or that of his adoptive father's question. No definite orders seem to have been passed regarding his prayer for a share of his father's pension. Kind attention is invited to the office notes of 16-12-93 & dewan's order thereon of 16th August 1895.

8. Lakshmammani, the widow of Sri Narayanaswami states that she has two children for support & her children are rightly entitled for a share in the grandfather's pension.

9. The State Inam Treasury Officer has only served her with a notice to establish her claim on the petition pension & had not pursued further in making a detail enquiry on her petition by the local authorities concerned as was done in the case of the other claimant — Bhanta Ramaswami.

10. May the S. H. Treasury Officer be asked to make further enquiries on the petition of Lakshmammani and to report to Govt on the same submitted for orders.

11. Please put up with draft

13. In the absence of the facts relating to the adoption of Sriniavarasimaswami husband of Lakshmammani, it is difficult to say why the adoption was not recognised by the Chief Comr whether because it was against Hindu law or because his permission was not obtained for the adoption. If the latter was the case it is difficult to conceive why the son of the father should have been visited on the son — the boy given away in adoption and be deprived of his claim to his the father's pension, while the latter himself does not seem to have been in any way punished. The case seems to be a hard one. However the order no 4 of 15th aug 95 declines to reopen the question.

14. Under the above circumstances Anantanarasimaswami must now be considered to be the only claimant to his father narasimaswami's pension.

Sir,

I have the honor to forwar herewith for the orders of Governm the marginally noted. Petitions original and the Correspondenc relating thereto.

Narainswami, Pollegar of Chik Ballapur family, the fath of the Petitioner Ananta Ramas died on 29th October 1908, leavi him as his sole heir and leg representative (Vide Deputy Commis and Amildar's Reports and correspondence herewith submit

To facilitate reference, a genealogical table is appended hereto.

One Lakshmammanni, widow of Sooryanarayenaswami, the brother of Ramaswami, grand-father of the Petitioner urged her claim to a share in the pension representing that her husband and the late Ramaswami, father of Narainswami, were uterine brothers, and that she has a son and a daughter to support.

A notice was thereupon issued to her on 20th March 09 calling upon her to properly establish her claims and to explain why she had kept quiet for so long a time.

She has neither appeared personally or by any agent, nor submitted any explanation up to date.

The Deputy Commissioner as well as the Amildar of Chik Ballapur State that Ananta Ramaswami is the only legal heir of the deceased Narainswami

Suryanarayanswami

Surjanarayanaswami
the husband of Lakshmammanni and Rangappia his brother, h both been given away in adop to different Dollegar families, a on this account they were not given a share in the family pension on the death of their father Krishnaswami; but th whole of the pension was regis ed in the name of their elder brother Ramaswami

Again on the death of th Ramaswami, the pension was given to his son Narainswam
At that time also Lakshmamm
-ma did not put forward any claim to a share of th pension.

Lakshmammanna has n claim whatever to a share in the pension and her prayer could not be recognized.

Under these circumstance I beg to recommend that the pension of Rs 63-8-10, which we in the enjoyment of the late Narainswami

Naraswamy, may be registered in the name of his Son Ananta-
-Ramaswami.

The entire records are submitted herewith for refer-ence and kind return when no longer required.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant.
